

September 2015

The Peripheries of Justice Intervention: Preliminary Examination and Legacy/Sustainable Exit

International Expert Meeting, co-organized by the Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies and the Centre for International Law Research and Policy, with support from the Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research, in the context of the Project 'Post-Conflict Justice and Local Ownership'

29 September 2015
Historical Reading Room, Peace Palace

DRAFT PROGRAMME

Welcome

9.00 – 9.15 Carsten Stahn (Leiden University) and Morten Bergsmo (Peking University)

PANEL 1

Context, Nature and Functions of Preliminary Examinations

9.15 – 10.45

Speakers:

- Leslie Vinjamuri, SOAS, University of London
- Priscilla Hayner, Consultant
- Mark Kersten, University of Toronto, Munk School of Global Affairs
- Mark Drumbl, Washington and Lee University

- Discussion

PANEL 2

Legal Framework of Preliminary Examinations

11.15 – 13.00

Speakers:

- William Schabas, Middlesex and Leiden University
- Elizabeth Evenson, Human Rights Watch
- Mohamed M. El Zeidy, ICC
- Comment: Rod Rastan, ICC

- Discussion

13.00 – 14.00

Lunch, Refectory Peace Palace

PANEL 3

Methodology of Preliminary Examinations

14.00 – 15.30

Speakers:

- Paul Seils, ICTJ
- Shehzad Charania, Foreign and Commonwealth Office, UK
- Cecile Aptel, OHCHR
- Comment: Emeric Rogier, ICC

- Discussion

PANEL 4

'Legacy' and Sustainable Exit after Intervention

16.00 – 17.30

Speakers:

- Stephen Rapp, former US Ambassador-at-Large for War Crimes
- Kevin Heller, SOAS, University of London
- Gabrielle McIntyre, ICTY
- Viviane Dittrich, London School of Economics

- Discussion

Drinks

18.00 Wicked Wines, Bazarstraat 42, 2518 AK Den Haag